Does it make the blood pure? Yes!
Does it strengthen the nerves? Yes!
Is it entirely free from alcohol? Yes!
Ask your doctor if a family medicine, like Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is not vastly better without alcohol than with it.

ELECT SOUTHSIDE MEMBERS TO-NIGHT

City Council to Name Representatives From Washington Ward.

Following a joint session of the two branches of the City Council called for 8 o'clock to-night to elect a physician to the poor, to succeed Dr. Thomas G. Pretlow, resigned, separate meetings will be held by each branch to elect members of the Common Council and Board of Aldermen from Washington Ward, to fill the unexpired term. It had been proposed to finish the work by going back into a joint session and electing the Fire Commissioner and Police Commissioner from the new ward at once, but objection was raised that the new members from Washington Ward should be given time to qualify and so present a ward nomination for the two offices. The slate for City Councilmen as agreed upon last night is as follows:

For the Common Council—Carter C. Jones, L. R. Brown, W. W. Workman, B. A. Gill, W. B. Bradley.

For the Board of Aldermen—John W. Moore, R. L. Patnam and J. R. Perdue.

The only doubtful man is W. B. Bradley, who has been spoken of as Fire Commissioner.

He can have either position, and will probably be offered a seat in the Council if he will accept. The question has been raised as to his eligibility to an elective position in the city while holding the State office of member of the board of the Virginia Penitentiary, and the City Attorney may be asked to pass on it. The name of J. F. Bradley has been suggested as an alternate.

Until the rules of the Council are amended at the May meeting, no provision can be made for committee assignment for the new Washington Ward delegates, as all committees now have their full quota save the Committee on Streets, which is made up of one Alderman and one Councilman from each ward. Carter C. Jones and John W. Moore are said to be elated as Street Commissioners.

The Committee on Finance is also on the calendar for a meeting to-night.

THREE PROFFITS IN SAME STATION

Father, Son and Cousin Locked Up on Charge of Drinking Too Much Bad Whiskey.

According to the Scriptures, a prophet is not without honor save in his own country, but last night three Proffits were without honor save in the Second Police Station. Three of them, father, son and cousin, were locked up in that station yesterday on a charge of drunkenness. Alfred Proffit was brought in during the morning. Several hours later his son, Frank Proffit, was welcomed as a guest. Hardly had Frank been given a comfortable berth than H. C. Proffit, a cousin in the family, was brought to be a companion in misery with the others.

"Sheems like the whole d—d family's here," said Frank. "Put up all this—this name cell, will you please?" he begged. But one was separated.

It is the first time on record since when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary that three members of the same family were locked up in the same prison. John Barleycorn joins many hardy, though he reads many more asunder.

In the First Station Lewis Bowles, colored, was locked up on a charge of stealing $1.50 from Lillian Carter, also colored. There were several other drunks, but they are not of sufficient fame to be mentioned.

MANN DECLINES CHURCH OFFICE

Engagements Prevent Governor From Accepting Moderatorship of East Hanover Presbytery.

REV. M. B. PORTER IS ELECTED

Many Attend First Meeting, and Program for Rest of Session Is Mapped Out.

East Hanover Presbytery began its spring meeting last night in the Church of the Covenant, of which the Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., is the pastor, this being the first meeting of the presbytery which has been held in the new structure.

After the meeting had been opened with prayer by the retiring moderator, the Rev. F. F. Jones, of Brunswick county, nominations for a new moderator were called for, and Dr. McFadden nominated Governor Mann, who represents the New York Church, in which he is an officer. Governor Mann expressed his regrets, however, and said that other engagements which could not be postponed would prevent his attending more than one session after last night, and he therefore asked that his name be withdrawn. His request was granted with much reluctance. The Rev. M. B. Porter, of this city, was nominated and elected by acclamation. The Revs. William S. Campbell and J. J. Fix were elected clerks.

The report of the committee on devotional exercises was presented by Dr. Stewart, and his report was adopted.

Impressive Sermon.

The opening sermon was delivered by the retiring moderator, who spoke from H. Timothy, 1:3, "Thou therefore endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." Mr. Jones' sermon made a fine impression upon the presbytery and congregation as a strong presentation of gospel truth. The services were closed with the celebration of the Lord's Supper, administered by Dr. T. P. Epps, of Blackstone, and Dr. D. Clay Lilly, the new pastor of Grace Street Church. The choir rendered music during the services, and Mr. Hill, the director of the choir, rendered a solo.

The presbytery will meet each morning at 9 o'clock and spend twenty minutes in devotional exercises. recess will be taken from 1 to 3 P. M. The afternoon session will close at 5 P. M., the evening session beginning at 8 P. M.

Candidates for Ministry.

Several special orders are arranged for. At 11 o'clock this morning candidates for the ministry will be received. At 1:30 o'clock Rev. J. E. Bookers, superintendent of home missions for the synod of Virginia, will make an address on the work which he has in charge.

At 8 P. M. Rev. Theron H. Rice, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary, will, by appointment, deliver the presidential address on "Inspiration of the Scriptures." To-morrow at 11 A. M. the report on foreign missions will be presented by Dr. Cecil, and Dr. Lilly will make an address on this subject. At 8 P. M. the report on home missions will be presented by Rev. D. K. Walthall, and an address will be made by Rev. D. H. Kistner, of Petersburg.

Thursday night Rev. J. Y. Fair, D. D., will preach.

Large Attendance.

The attendance of members of the presbytery was quite large for the opening session, thirty-seven ministers and ruling elders being present. The ministers who answered to the roll call were Dr. J. P. Smith, Dr. T. P. Epps, Dr. J. Calvin Stewart, William S. Campbell, Rev. D. K. Walthall, Dr. C. C. Hersman, Dr. Russell Cecil, R. B. Ezgister, Dr. A. L. Phillips, J. J. Fix, F. Wooten Osborn, Dr. E. T. McFadden, P. Jones, J. R. Roseboro, Tilden Scherer, M. B. Porter, D. H. Kistner, A. D. P. Gilmour and Dr. J. Y. Fair.

Ruling Elders—James W. Gordon, Grace Street Church; Governor William H. Mann, Nottoway; James Whitte, Church of the Covenant; L. H. Kemp, Montrose; W. H. Holladay, Mizpah; E. T. Glasgow, Nottoway; Second, John H. Reed, Richmond; Third, C. H. Leeland, Samuel Davies Church; John P. Atkinson, Brunswick; A. R. Holderby, Jr., Westminster; A. C. Bruce, Hope Memorial; J. E. Talley, Hawkins Memorial; M. Friend, Petersburg; W. C. O'Connell, Overbrook; George L. Cook, Bon Air; R. M. Hall, Chester; L. R. Currie, Ginter Park.

"Sheems like the whole d—d family's here," said Frank. "Put up all this—this name cell, will you please?" he begged. But one was separated.
